

CALL FOR PAPERS

With this announcement, we kindly invite the submission of scholarly articles on the interdisciplinary area of Culture, Landcape and Sustainability to the Special Issue of MDPI Sustainability (open access, impact factor 3.889, citescore 5.0, indexed within SCIE and SSCI (Web of Science), Scopus and other databases).
https://www.mdpi.com/journal/sustainability/special_issues/92IKC0Z2LQ

Submission is already open and the last date to submit your work is 1 October 2023.

Kindly inform us and Assistant Editor, Ms. Antonia Chen at antonia.chen@mdpi.com, about your interest in submitting an article.

How to Submit?

Please visit the Instructions for Authors at:

<https://www.mdpi.com/journal/sustainability/instructions>

In our capacity as guest editors, we are entitled to allocate a couple of full waivers to the article processing charges (APC) for two submissions – please, contact us beforehand, in that regard. Please note that this discount requires the approval of the journal office.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.
